NCASC Summer Leadership Workshop
Frequently Asked Questions

What is the main purpose of the workshop?

- The primary goal of the workshop is to help students learn, improve, and practice their leadership skills.

What should delegates pack for the workshop?

- Delegates must provide their own fitted and flat sheets for a single or bunk-sized bed.
- Dorms are air-conditioned, so students must bring a pillow and a blanket.
- You will need to bring your own towels and washcloths for the week.
- Please pack personal articles like soap, toothpaste, and shower shoes.
- A reusable water bottle is very important to help delegates stay hydrated.
- Bring tennis shoes or closed-toed shoes, as they are required for gym activities.
- Special attire (such as a coat and tie for gentlemen or a Sunday dress for ladies) is required for the workshop banquet.
- Snacks are provided, but delegates may also bring sealed snacks and/or money to buy snacks.

What are the guidelines for the workshop dress code?

- Delegates must adhere to their regular school dress code throughout the event.
- Shorts and T-shirts are highly recommended for comfort and versatility during daily activities.
- Revealing clothing, such as tight-fitting, strapless, backless, midriff, or low-cut shirts, is not permitted.
- Delegates must have their chests, backs, and stomachs covered at all times.
- Students must wear shoes at all times.
- Staff members may ask delegates to change if their clothing is considered inappropriate.

What forms or medical information do I need?

- A completed medical form must be on file for every student to remain at and participate in the workshop.
- Delegates must bring a paper copy of their medical form and their insurance card to present upon arrival.
- Students with medical issues or those taking medication must inform the appropriate dean upon arrival.
- Any delegate who has a history of sleep-walking must also notify the deans.

Can students drive themselves to the workshop?

- Yes, but student drivers must park their cars at the dorms and are not allowed to use them during the workshop.
- Car keys must be turned in to the appropriate dean until the completion of the workshop.

What is the policy on cell phones and electronics?

- Cell phone use is limited during the workshop.
- During certain scheduled activities, cell phones must be turned off or left entirely in dorm rooms.
- It is recommended to not bring any electronics to the workshop. They are the delegate's responsibility. NCASC is not responsible for any electronic devices.

What are the rules regarding attendance and campus boundaries?

- Delegates are required to attend all scheduled events in their entirety unless an adult staff member explicitly excuses them.
- Delegates must stay on campus for the entire duration of the workshop.
- Delegates are not permitted to go on dorm floors of the opposite sex, except during the scheduled check-in and check-out times.

Is there information for advisors attending?

- Advisors are invited and encouraged to participate fully in the entire workshop program, including special sessions for advisors.
- Teachers may have the opportunity to earn renewal CEU credits for attending the workshop.

What items are prohibited at the workshop?

- Please do not bring valuables, as neither the university nor NCASC will assume responsibility for lost or stolen items.
- The possession or use of illegal substances, alcoholic beverages, smoking, and vapes is strictly forbidden.
- Food cannot be ordered for delivery.
